VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL: Vacation Bible School is July 10 - August 7. This summer Calvary will be involved in a collaborative Vacation Bible School with other Episcopal churches in Louisville. The theme is: "God's Wonderful World." This is an inter-generational study including an adult lesson and activity stations for the youth and children. We encourage everyone to go to all of the different dates and locations, as this is a series and every part is important to get the full study and experience. The dates and locations are July 10th at St. Mark's, July 17th at Calvary, July 24th at St. James', July 31st at St. Matthew's, and August 7th at St. Andrew's. The meeting time every week will be 6-8 pm, and dinner will be provided. We are in need of volunteers for our hosting night of July 17th to help with food prep and serving, setup and cleanup, and to lead activity stations. If you would like to volunteer, or have any questions, please see or contact Britt Shelton.
